

Karol P. Kimmerly

Karol Kimmerly is R3 Group LLC's Client Services Director. She and Managing Director Jane Pigott have been a team for over 34 years. She regularly interfaces with clients to ensure that their needs are met in a high quality and timely fashion.

Before R3 Group, Ms. Kimmerly spent sixteen years in the professional services industry. She provided the administrative support necessary to run a global practice group. She was a key point person on the client relationship team for a top five client of a top 25 law firm. In addition, she provided the client relationship and administrative support for a litigation, regulatory and deal legal practice.

Ms. Kimmerly's early career was spent in the financial services industry, providing administrative and client support for prominent account managers. She also supported the owner of an import/export corporation.

When not providing assistance to Ms. Pigott and their clients, Ms. Kimmerly enjoys spending time with her two grandchildren, bike riding and reading.
